

40,000 People and 150 Boats over two days in the heart of Stratford-Upon-Avon...

VIP OFFER

By popular demand the Stratford River Festival will be returning to the banks of the River Avon over the weekend of 30th June and 1st July 2012. This unique free event was established by Stratforward Business Improvement District in 2009 providing yet another reason for visitors and locals to come to enjoy this wonderful town. Plans are afoot to make this years River Festival even biggest and best so far. The event is advertised nationally and attracts people from all over the UK. But perhaps more importantly it's the most popular event in the Stratford Calendar and attracts a huge local following.

The packed programmed of events ensures that's there is something for all the family to enjoy, whether it be admiring the flotilla of over 100 decorated narrow boats, watching river demonstrations by the dozens of national clubs, ambling through the craft market, savoring an assortment of global foods, being inspired by the dozens of local charities, joining in on the fun in the family zone to supping a pint of real ale, being amazed by the fabulous fireworks display or simply sitting back in a deckchair and soaking up the atmosphere and enjoying the selection of world class performers on the bandstand.

It's the perfect opportunity for your company to become associated with this high profile quintessentially English event by taking a table in our VIP Marquee for just £100

VIP OFFER

What we are offering is exclusive use of a table for 8 for the day away from the hustle and bustle of the main arena. With riverside views of all the activities both on and off the river including the Saturday evening fireworks display it's a great opportunity for local companies to entertain clients, reward team members or simply offer your friends and family a fun day out – without a huge outlay!

Each table will be served with a welcoming jug of Pimms on arrival and there will be waitress service available from the Pimms and Champagne Bar – avoiding all those queues! We'll even arrange a private punting excursion for your party down the River Avon past the hundreds of brightly painted narrow boats including a punting master class for any of your budding punters! For those companies wanting to splash out we can also arrange delivery of a luxury hamper and champagne for your group – at an additional cost!
